

TIGERS BEAT DRAKE
IN LAST HALF, 14-0

With Five Substitutes, Missourians in First Part Hold the Bulldogs Scoreless.

RIDER IN 50-YARD RUN

Collins Plays Well—Iowans Complete Ten Forward Passes in 15 Attempts.

Missouri still has a pretty good football team, and Drake knows how to work the forward pass—these were the outstanding features of the 14-0 victory of the Tigers over the visitors from Iowa on Rollins Field yesterday afternoon. With five substitutes in the line-up, the Missourians played their opponents to a standstill in the first half. With the regular Tiger backfield in action in the second half, two touchdowns came in rapid succession. Lansing kicked both goals. Drake worked ten forward passes out of fifteen attempts and succeeded in scooping in several the Tigers tried.

One touchdown was fairly earned, coming when the team worked the ball from the center of the gridiron down to the Drake goal line and then put Collins over. The other resulted from a pretty run by Rider for half the length of the field.

Drake Works Forward Pass.

The Bulldogs, by mixing short side passes off the ends with longer passes over the line, completely baffled the Tiger defense. Smith, the plunging Drake fullback, was also able to pierce the Tiger defense at times, but poor interference on end runs, coupled with fumbles and penalties, lost more ground for the Iowa team than the passes and line plays could make up.

At least three times during the game the eleven from the North threatened to score, but each time luck broke against them. In the second quarter they worked the ball to within kicking distance of the Missouri goal, but they chose to try a forward pass, which missed connections by a narrow margin. Smith took the kickoff off the goal posts after Missouri's first touchdown and tore down the side of the field, eluding practically the whole Tiger team, but Rider—luckily a track man—cut across the field after him and saved the day by a pretty tackle. Later in the game Drake's passes put the ball on Missouri's 13-yard line, but a fumble cost the Iowans the chance to score.

Tiger Coaches Save Plays.

The Missouri coaches were obviously saving their best men and plays for the Kansas game, and no attempt was made to run up a score. Morris, White and Collins worked in the backfield during the first half, but were unable to take advantage of the superior Tiger line and could only hold the Bulldogs to a draw. Rider and McMillan went in with Collins in the third quarter and had little trouble gaining ground against the fighting Iowans. After the two touchdowns other backfield men got a chance to work out, and they continued to hold the advantage.

The Tigers outtrushed their opponents, gaining 313 yards by straight football to Drake's 55 yards. The punts were practically even, both Slusher and Jernegan averaging close to 36 yards. Drake gained 94 yards by the aerial route, while not a Tiger pass went true. Missouri made sixteen first downs to Drake's eight. Missouri lost 60 yards by penalties, while Drake was penalized only 30 yards.

Tiger Line Holds Its Own.

The Tiger line, broken up as it was, consistently outcharged the Drake forwards. Even the great Sprong was played to a standstill by Hamilton, who later proved his ability at tackle both by carrying the ball and checking Drake plays. Preston, McAnaw and Groves put up their usual aggressive games. Bass proved a demon at end, time after time throwing the Drake runners for big losses.

The first half was a punting duel with the advantage slightly to Jernegan, the Drake halfback. Neither team could gain consistently, and most of the playing was between the 25-yard lines. Missouri's backfield made three first downs in the first quarter, making up for Jernegan's advantage in the booting, but Drake opened up in the second quarter, completing several forward passes, but still was un-

JAYHAWKERS WIN, 7-3

Kansas Defeats Nebraska and Further Complicates Valley Race.

The Kansas Jayhawkers staged their much-talked-of comeback yesterday by giving Nebraska her first Conference defeat since 1910 when a touchdown in the third quarter forced the Cornhuskers to take the short end of a 7-to-3 score after they had led, 3 to 0, in the first half through a field goal by Captain Corey.

The victory of the Jayhawkers further complicates matters in the Missouri Valley Conference, for it is now impossible for any team to have a clear title to the championship. Every team in the conference has lost a game to some other conference team.

The game yesterday not only marked Kansas' first victory over Nebraska for some time but gave them their first touchdown of the season against a conference team. The Jayhawkers now have a record of one game won and one lost in the conference with a tie with the Kansas Aggies also on their sheet. Kansas lost to Ames, 13-0. The Conference title is now a matter of "dope." If the Tigers beat Kansas Thanksgiving Day Missouri will be tied with Nebraska in games won and lost, each with three won and one lost. If Kansas wins Nebraska will lead in games won and lost but the Jayhawkers will have as good a claim to the title as the Cornhuskers, while the Kansas Aggies, by virtue of their victory over Missouri and Ames by virtue of her victory over Kansas, could also put in claims to the honor.

MOTHERS CLUB MAKES $43.50.

Bazaar at the Benton School Well Patronized Yesterday.

The proceeds of the second annual Benton School Mothers' Bazaar held yesterday was $43.50. The money will be used by the Benton School for improving and increasing the equipment of the domestic science and manual training departments; purchasing playground apparatus, and in assisting needy children through school.

Fancy aprons, handkerchiefs, towels, hand bags, center-pieces and other articles, both serviceable and ornamental had been contributed by the mothers of the children of the school. There were also useful articles given by the teachers, themselves, and a few outside friends of the school. Buying was brisk throughout the day. The 15-cent luncheon served at noon was well patronized by the business men.

"We are very well pleased with the results of today's bazaar," said Mrs. T. E. Windsor, president of the Benton Mothers' Association, "and we are exceedingly grateful to Mr. Stone for the use of his building, which has been a most important factor in the success of our undertaking."

According to Mrs. C. E. Coombe, treasurer of the association, the receipts of last year's bazaar were not equal to the amount taken in this year and on that account the association should be able to do even more good the coming year than it has done during the past twelve months.

President Hill Back Today.

PRESIDENT IN FIGHT
OVER ADAMSON LAW

Wilson to Offer Proposal for Prevention of Strikes in the United States.

TO GO TO CONGRESS

Program Is Planned to Be Put Through in Coming Final Joint Session.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—President Wilson today was preparing personally to enter the great three-cornered fight among labor, railroads and the government with a proposal for the prevention of strikes in the United States. Monday he will confer with Representative Adamson, chairman of the House Committee on Interstate Commerce, concerning the program he advanced at the last joint session of Congress.

Mr. Adamson says this program will be pushed through immediately when Congress reconvenes in December, and he says it may be found not advisable to await the report of Congress' joint committee authorized to make an enquiry into the entire railroad problem.

With the railroads as a unit combating the constitutionality of the eight-hour law, with labor ready to fight proposals of settlement, with members of Congress widely divided on these questions, the railroad problem threatens to embarrass the smooth operation of the legislative machinery of this session.

V. A. DAVIS DODGES PUBLICITY
Accusation of Being Student Irks Speaker at Shoe Factory.

The first of a series of noon-day talks at the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Factory was given yesterday by Vincent A. Davis, a student in the University, on "The Other Fellow." A large part of the time allotted to the speaker was spent in telling of the "handicap" under which he spoke, criticizing the Daily Missourian for referring to him in Friday's paper as a student in the University.

Mr. Davis is a junior in the School of Education of the University and lives at 806 Missouri avenue. His home is at Independence, Mo.

At the beginning of his speech Mr. Davis told his hearers, about seventy-five employees of the shoe factory, that he was speaking under two severe disadvantages. One was that he was unaccustomed to speaking in the open air; the other was that the Missourian had said he was a student in the University.

"If the writer of that story in yesterday's Missourian had tried for five hundred years, he could never have framed up a more misleading impression," said Mr. Davis, in opening his address. "And while I am a student in the University, nevertheless I am afraid the laborer will think I am the usual sappy kind he is so used to hearing."

After the address Mr. Davis asked a reporter for the Missourian not to publish what he had said about the paper to those assembled at the meeting. He said to the reporter that he was a student, but did not want the Hamilton-Brown employees to know it. "If I had known a Missourian reporter was in the crowd, I would probably not have made the criticism," he said when he was introduced to the newspaper man.

A committee was appointed at the factory to arrange for the continuance of the series of noon-day talks.

OTHER TOWNS WANT FILMS

Women's Clubs of Nearby Towns Would Form Educational Circuit.

The series of educational films that are being shown under the auspices of a number of women's clubs of Columbia have attracted such favorable attention that similar organizations in Sedalia, Hannibal, Moberly and Booneville have written to those in charge here to see if some circuit might be arranged whereby these films might be shown in those cities. If such a circuit is completed it means that Columbia will get to see better pictures at the same prices.

The second of the series of thirteen was shown to a crowd of 700 yesterday afternoon. Last Saturday the number reached almost a thousand but the football game attracted many who otherwise would have been there. The program consisted of a visualization of Daniel Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe" and a picture of the same series as the one shown last Saturday.

MAY RIDDLE AN ALIBI

State Hopes to Prove a Motive for the Accused St. Joseph Prosecutor.

By United Press

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 18.—That the attempted alibi on behalf of Oscar McDaniel, charged with the murder of his wife July 14, will be riddled by the state was the statement made by Attorney General Barker in opening the case today. The state will attempt to prove that McDaniel had a motive, that screams of his wife were heard by others, that McDaniel was not present at the places he asserts he visited the night of the murder and that he carefully planned the assault and prepared his defense on the day of the murder.

For the defense, Judge Strop said a complete alibi would be presented to establish the good character of the defendant. At the opening of the court, the state asked a delay of half an hour, after which the jury was announced. The state spent thirty-six hours eliminating the names of twenty-six veniremen. All except two of the jurors are married.

A hush came over the court as two sad-faced, little women entered and took seats near Bart M. Lockwood, special prosecuting attorney. They were Mrs. L. H. Moss and Miss Allene Moss, mother and sister of the murdered woman. The court room was packed to capacity early.

HURT IN MOTOR SPILL

Two Women and One Man Injured in Accident on Ashland Gravel.

Three persons were injured at 10:30 o'clock last night when a new Studebaker automobile driven by Lawrence Bowser struck a tree on the Ashland gravel about six miles southeast of Columbia. The injured are: Mrs. Lawrence Bowser, knee wrenched; Miss Flora Stapleton, hand cut; a man named Nichols, three ribs broken, hip bruised, hand cut. Mr. Bowser was uninjured. Dr. J. E. Thornton dressed the wounds.

Lack of familiarity with the new car is thought to have been responsible for the accident. It is said Mr. Bowser lost control of the machine. A car was sent from Columbia to bring the injured passengers to town. Mr. Bowser is proprietor of the Bowser Taxicab Company.

DAIRYMEN RAISE PRICE OF MILK

Local Increase Is Due to High Cost of Bran and Chops.

Columbia dairymen have advanced the price of milk. Most of them are now selling a pint for 5 cents, a quart for 9 cents and a gallon for 32 cents, although some of them charge 5 1-2 cents and 10 cents for pints and quarts. The increase in the price of chops and bran, which are the main milk-producing feeds, is given as the cause. Dairymen point out that last November they bought chops at $1.40 and bran at $1.10 a hundred, while now they pay $2 and $1.60 for the same feeds, a cost increase greater than the advance in the price of milk.

W. C. T. U. To Meet Tomorrow.

LAST BELGIAN PLEA
ANSWERED BY POPE

Rome Advises Say Intervention Is Made to Prevent Further Deportations.

QUIET ALONG SOMME

Allies Consolidate Newly Won Positions—Fall of Monastir Expected.

By United Press

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Belgium's plea against Germany's stripping the nation of manhood resounded above the din of war. According to advices from Rome, Pope Benedict has responded to the appeals from King Albert of Belgium and has intervened with Kaiser Wilhelm and Emperor Franz Josef of Austria against forcing Belgians to work in German factories.

(Copyright, 1916, by United Press at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Canada.)

WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES ON THE SOMME FRONT, Nov. 18.—Eight minutes of dashing across a sea of mud, worse than the slough of despond, of methodically advancing with quick work in the trenches, enabled the Canadians to take the Regina trench, one of the smoothest bits of trench-taking work on the Somme drive.

I saw Canadians, muddy to the eyebrows, but grinning as they told of the assault that was over in eight minutes. The attack was carried out in a glaring moonlight, and despite the terrific counter attack by the Germans and a sea of mud, every objective of the Canadian assault was completely won. Though the Germans repeatedly counter-attacked the Canadians kept every inch of ground and before dawn had strongly reorganized positions and dug 250 yards of connecting trenches.

Prior to the attack the Canadians had occupied positions directly south of Pys. The Regina trench, 300 to 500 yards north, had been partly occupied a fortnight ago by the Canadians, but a thousand-yard stretch remained to be taken. Severe fighting had already marked this scene, near the Regina trench being the Germans' greatest defense work.

Fall of Monastir Is Expected.

By United Press
LONDON, Nov. 18.—Comparative calm is reported reigning along the Somme. The Allies are consolidating their newly won positions. The war interest is now in the Balkans. London regards the fall of Monastir as imminent. It is reported that the city which Bulgaria holds is almost enveloped by Serbian, French and Russian troops and that the fortifications are within range of the Allies' guns.

Serbs and French Repulsed.

By United Press
BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Sanguinary repulse of the Serbian and French attacks on the plains of Monastir and the recapture of a mountain summit previously taken from the Germans by the Serbians was reported in today's official statement, which related also, that artillery duels were in progress along the left wing of Mackensen's army of Bulgarians and French.

The Rumanians had been endeavoring unsuccessfully to push back the center line of the Germans, and it is said their losses were heavy.

French Claim Success.
